Prominent Commercial Real Estate Attorney Joins Shumaker

CHARLESTON, SC – Charleston Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW Charleston) Network Founding Member and Commercial Real Estate Lawyer Cynthia Spieth Morton has joined Shumaker's Charleston office as a Partner. Cynthia has over 20 years of experience in the commercial real estate sector. Cynthia's practice focuses on all aspects of commercial real estate transactions, with a heavy emphasis on developer-related transactions. Cynthia also assists clients in lease negotiation, restrictive covenant development, land use planning, and financing transactions.

"We are lucky to have Cynthia come to the firm," said Laura Evans, Charleston Office Managing Partner. "Cynthia has had a front seat in commercial real estate development across the state and is widely lauded by her clients and respected by her peers."

"I am excited to be joining Shumaker and look forward to continuing to find the best solutions for the unique needs of my clients," said Cynthia.

Dedicated to supporting women in commercial real estate, Cynthia has held multiple positions with CREW Charleston, which is dedicated to transforming the commercial real estate industry by advancing women globally. Cynthia currently serves on the Advisory Committee and was a Founding Member and Board member (2009-2011), President Elect (2012), and President (2013).
