Lawyer and Florida Licensed Real Estate Agent Corey R. Parker Bolsters Shumaker's Real Estate Practice Group

TAMPA, FL – Shumaker announced today that Corey R. Parker joined the firm as an associate in its Tampa office, bringing with him a unique perspective to his practice as not only a lawyer, but also as a licensed Florida Real Estate Sales Agent.

“We are excited to add an associate attorney with Corey’s skills to Shumaker’s full-service Real Estate team,” said Sam Queirolo, Shumaker’s Tampa Real Estate and Development Service Line Leader.

Corey represents clients in the acquisition, development, leasing, management, and disposition of commercial and residential real estate, including vacant land, retail, warehouse, manufacturing, hospitality, and multi-family properties. Additionally, Corey assists real estate investors and developers to form organizational structures designed to increase asset protection and reduce tax liabilities. Clients turn to Corey and the Shumaker real estate team to identify and mitigate risk and generate cost-effective, practical solutions tailored to their individual needs.
