Community Leader Gregory C. Yadley Named Chairman of the Board of The Florida Orchestra

TAMPA, FL – Partner Gregory C. Yadley continues to be a prominent figure in the Tampa Bay community and has been elected Chair of the Board of The Florida Orchestra (TFO), where he previously served as the Vice Chair of the Board and member of the Executive Committee. TFO is recognized as Tampa Bay's leading performing arts institution, the largest professional symphony orchestra in Florida, and one of the most vibrant and innovative orchestras in America. TFO strives to enrich life, entertain, and educate a wide and diverse audience with the unique experience of live symphonic music.

"We are honored to have someone of Greg's stature lead TFO's board," said TFO President & CEO Mark Cantrell. "With highly engaged board members and outstanding Music Director Michael Francis, The Florida Orchestra is leading the way for the arts in Tampa Bay and playing a key role in a thriving economy. Together we are raising the bar on how this orchestra serves Tampa Bay."

"Tampa Bay's arts and cultural organizations have helped us attract and retain increasing numbers of new residents and high-quality businesses," said Greg. "The Florida Orchestra, the state's largest, is leading the way, playing a key role in a thriving economy, quality of life, and so much more. I look forward to leading the Board and supporting our outstanding musicians in building a better, stronger Tampa Bay."

Greg's commitment to community extends beyond TFO; he has served as past Chair of Visit Tampa Bay, the Hillsborough County Arts Council, the City of Tampa Public Art Committee, and Leadership Tampa Alumni.

As Partner and Corporate, Tax and Transactions Regional Service Line Leader at Shumaker, Greg brings a wealth of experience to his representation of business entities, including closely held and family businesses, large and small public companies, and nonprofit entities.
