CHARLOTTE, NC – Andrew J. Bosserman, a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) who formerly worked at a top 200 public accounting firm and as an IRS agent, has joined Shumaker as an associate in its Corporate, Tax and Transactions Service Line. Andrew's experience allows him to understand "both sides of the table," auditing businesses and individuals, as well as defending them during an IRS audit.

"Andrew brings real-world experience to our transactional group, particularly in the tax and accounting areas. Our clients will benefit from the perspective he brings to complex transactions and we look forward to his involvement moving forward," said Charlotte's Corporate, Tax and Transactions Regional Service Line Leader Phil Chubb.

Andrew's experience as a CPA, as well as his dedication and thorough examination of the law allow him to successfully counsel clients on structuring business entities and transactions, business entity taxation, federal and state tax controversy, and tax planning. In addition, as a former owner and operator of a tree farm, Andrew has first-hand experience with the issues faced by business owners.

Shumaker's Corporate, Tax and Transactions Service Line offers pragmatic, results-oriented counsel to corporate clients ranging from small, closely held businesses to Fortune 500 companies, advising clients on the full spectrum of business matters, from entity formation to dissolution, representing companies in virtually all sectors.
