Shumaker Partner and Community Leader Andrew Mayts Named Chair of the Tampa Bay Chamber

TAMPA, FL – Widely recognized civil litigation lawyer, community advocate, corporate leader, and Shumaker Partner Andrew (Andy) J. Mayts, Jr. has been named Chair of the Tampa Bay Chamber (Chamber), where he will continue his work helping to accomplish the Chamber's strategic goals. Andy has long served on the Chamber's Board, most recently serving as Chair-Elect in 2021, Treasurer in 2020, as well as on the Chamber's Policy Council.

The Tampa Bay Chamber is made up of a diverse group of local businesses ranging from big corporations, small businesses, government bodies, and the military. United, the Chamber is a single, unifying force with the power to shape the future of Tampa Bay.

"Andy's deep ties to the community and his commitment to continuing the great work of the Chamber make him an excellent choice to lead the Board into the future," said Shumaker's Tampa Managing Partner Ron Christaldi. "I know firsthand of Andy's long and distinguished track record of leadership in our community and I look forward to seeing how his work and leadership help move the Chamber forward in 2022."

Among his key strategic goals for 2022, Andy and the Chamber are committed to being a catalyst for pro-business policies at the local, state, and federal level and look forward to continuing the well-established working relationships with elected officials to advocate in a non-partisan way for Chamber members and policy priorities. Andy and the Chamber are also committed to working collaboratively with other local leaders in Pinellas, Pasco, and the surrounding counties of the region, joining together to tackle issues like transportation, for which solutions can only be crafted by looking through a regional lens.

"I am honored to serve as Chair of the Tampa Bay Chamber's Board of Directors," said Andy. "The Chamber is a driving force in our community and a key advocate for moving our region into the future. I look forward
