

DECEMBER 13, 2021 | NEWS

Shumaker Continues to Grow Carolina Offices with the Addition of Three New Attorneys

CHARLOTTE, NC; GREENVILLE, SC – Associates, Iona L. Chapman, Clark C. Cooper, and Devin J. Cummins have joined Shumaker’s Carolina offices, bringing the 2021 firm-wide new attorney total to 25. Located in the Charlotte, N.C. office, Iona is a member of the Wealth Strategies Service Line and Clark is a member of the Litigation and Disputes Service Line. Devin is located in the Greenville, S.C. office, where he is a member of the Intellectual Property and Technology Service Line.

“Our clients’ needs are always at the forefront and bringing on Iona, Clark, and Devin means deepening Shumaker’s capabilities, allowing us to better serve our local clients,” shared Chairman Tom Dillon.

“Shumaker is thrilled to have these talented attorneys join us,” said Charlotte and Greenville Managing Partner Steve Meckler. “Shumaker’s reputation for providing exceptional high-level services to its clients and the firm’s wonderful culture continues to allow us to attract the best talent out there. We look forward to our continued growth and offerings in the Carolinas as we continue to meet the service needs of our clients.”

A client-centered attorney, Iona focuses her practice on estate planning, tax planning, and estate and trust administration. Clients benefit from Iona’s conscientious and dedicated work ethic. Her motivation to become a lawyer spawned from her desire to help people, and she experiences a great deal of satisfaction from being able to provide clients with the legal knowledge and tools they need to accomplish their goals. Prior to joining Shumaker, Iona worked as a solicitor in St. Andrews, Scotland, specializing in wills, trusts, and estates.

Clark is a determined and persistent litigator focused on defending clients in medical malpractice cases, medical device litigation, and catastrophic personal injury litigation. Clients turn to him for his conscientious

SERVICE LINE

Intellectual Property
Litigation & Disputes
Wealth Strategies

RELATED PROFESSIONALS

Clark C. Cooper

MEDIA CONTACT

Wendy M. Byrne
wbyrne@shumaker.com

and meticulous work ethic when handling the matters at hand. Before joining Shumaker, Clark worked at a law firm where he handled workers' compensation defense and he was a law clerk at the North Carolina Court of Appeals for Judge Mark Davis

Devin is a registered patent attorney with five years of experience preparing and prosecuting patent applications. He provides client counseling, stressing a value-driven approach in developing client intellectual property (IP) portfolios. Devin's practice focuses on patent application preparation, prosecution, post-grant proceedings, opinion work (clearance, freedom-to-operate, and validity analysis), and client counseling.