Shumaker Names Sarah Diller New Chief Financial Officer

TOLEDO, OH – Shumaker has elevated Sarah Diller to serve as the firm’s new Chief Financial Officer (CFO), where she will be responsible for the firm’s integrity of accounting, finance, and tax functions. An experienced certified public accountant (CPA), Sarah has been a member of the Shumaker Finance team since 2013, serving as Controller and overseeing the delivery of financial services. Upon joining Shumaker, Sarah had 11 years of experience in public accounting, where she gained excellent accounting skills and a love for helping individuals truly understand the importance of working harder and smarter for their clients and for their bottom line.

“We are excited to have Sarah’s leadership and energy guiding us. Like those before her, we see in Sarah; a senior leader with a vision for the future, passion for the community, and commitment to our professionals and their clients,” said Chief Operating Officer Paul Favorite.

A lifelong resident of Northwest Ohio, Sarah’s dedication extends beyond the office and into the Toledo community, where she is heavily involved with the local chapter of the Girls on the Run International organization, which empowers young girls to be future leaders in our community.
