SARASOTA, FL – Shumaker announced today that Partner Jason Collier will become the firm's Regional Leader for the Labor, Employment and Benefits Service Line. With the pandemic, the traditional workplace is continuing to evolve in many ways, from vaccine mandates to increased remote positions.

"Jason's background in employment law is more valuable than ever as businesses are restructuring and changing processes due to the pandemic," Chairman Tom Dillon said. "At Shumaker, we are dedicated to helping clients navigate the law through these unprecedented times."

The announcement comes as Shumaker continues to experience significant growth and momentum. Over the past year, Shumaker has added regional service line leaders for the most quickly growing and in-demand areas of law including, real estate and development; health law; environmental and energy; intellectual property and technology; labor, employment, and benefits; and wealth strategies.

"I am honored and excited to be selected to help Shumaker expand its reach regionally," Jason said. "We pride ourselves in making a difference for our clients and feel that the need is greater than ever to help businesses adjust to the modern workplace."
