SARASOTA, FL – Shumaker announced today that Associate Ryan M. Guerin has joined the firm’s National Labor, Employment and Benefits Service Line, as the latest in a string of strategic hires for the group, which most recently welcomed Partner Clayton Williams in the firm’s Charlotte, NC office, and Partner Scot Hinshaw in the Toledo, OH office.

“With the ever-changing landscape of the workplace, the demand for legal services continues to rise and we are committed to expanding with the need in order to not only meet, but to exceed our clients’ needs,” said Partner and Labor, Employment and Benefits Regional Service Line Leader Jason Collier. “We are pleased to have Ryan join our team, adding additional depth to our extensive Labor, Employment and Benefits Service Line.”

Ryan’s practice primarily focuses in the area of labor and employment, but also covers an array of general and complex commercial litigation matters. He represents employers in litigation involving claims of employment harassment, discrimination, retaliation, leave laws, wage and hour laws, whistleblower laws, enforcement of and defense against non-solicitation and non-competition agreements, and other employment-related claims. He also advises businesses on current legal trends and best employment practices. Ryan represents numerous industries, including clients within the automotive, retail, hospitality, health services, transportation, manufacturing, and construction industries.
