

Richard “Rich” Loudermilk

SENIOR COUNSEL

Rich brings almost three decades of experience guiding clients through every stage of the asset recovery process. In addition, he has served as trusted counsel to collection agencies and debt buyers, advising on regulatory compliance and risk management. His practice is grounded in a deep understanding of the laws and regulations impacting asset recovery, including the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, the Fair Credit Reporting Act, and a broad range of state and federal consumer protection statutes.

Since 1997, Rich has represented clients in matters ranging from pre-suit negotiations and litigation to post-judgment collection efforts. Among those he has represented are:

- financial institutions
- manufacturers
- mortgage holders
- debt purchasers
- collection agencies

A frequent speaker at industry seminars, Rich shares insights on debt collection trends and legal developments with both peers and clients.
