

Joseph M. Hollabaugh, Jr.

VICE PRESIDENT, SHUMAKER
ADVISORS, LLC

With extensive experience in public policy, government service, and successful statehouse, gubernatorial, and U.S. presidential campaigns, Joe is a leading expert on public policy messaging around complicated issues. He draws on his vast experience working inside state government and private sector consulting to help clients procure contracts, build their strategy, and become their own best advocates.

Joe began his career while studying political science at The Ohio State University and working for state Senator Merle Grace Kearns, whose passion and dedication for public service inspired him to pursue a career in politics and government. His over 30 years of experiences includes:

- Serving on several political campaigns ranging from a local school board race to managing statehouse and Ohio gubernatorial campaigns
- Serving as an assistant to the Chief of Staff for Ohio Governor Bob Taft, a liaison role between the Chief of Staff, governor's office staff, and executive department staff, in addition to working as an Advance Coordinator for the Governor
- An appointment as Political Director for the successful Ohio Victory 2000/Bush-Cheney Ohio campaign, managing 24 county political organizations and 15 statewide regional
