

Andrew L. McIntosh

OF COUNSEL

Working with clients in a broad range of industries, both nationally and internationally, Andrew is a business and transactions lawyer with significant experience advising individuals and business entities, many of which are identified with renewable energies, green builds, and sustainable business initiatives. As a member of the firm's international practice group, Andrew provides representation to clients involved in cross-border and global business and draws on his experience and relationships developed as a member of both the Ontario Bar and the Florida Bar.

Andrew is the co-founder of Cross Border Partners Advisory Services, which provides project management and consulting services to businesses seeking to expand through exports or direct investment. From 2005 to 2012, Andrew served as Honorary Consul of Canada for Florida, pursuant to the Government of Canada's "Enhanced Representation Initiative." He continues to provide services to facilitate trade and investment activities through the Canadian Consulate General at Miami and founded the Canada-Tampa Bay Chamber of Commerce. In recognition of his efforts, Andrew was awarded the Governor General's Visit Medallion.

Clients also regularly look to Andrew for advice regarding corporate governance matters and shareholder disputes, including:
