

John K. Nelson

PARTNER

Corporate and individual clients draw on John's more than three decades of experience handling civil litigation in federal and state courts, both at the trial and appellate levels. He has significant experience representing clients in a wide array of litigation matters involving complex commercial issues, contract issues, tort claims, and insurance coverage disputes. John also serves as national coordinating counsel for certain pattern tort litigation for a large corporate client, directing the efforts to secure insurance recovery and contractual indemnity for those cases.

John focuses his practice on representing and counseling clients on matters concerning insurance coverage for a variety of claims and losses under comprehensive general liability policies, errors and omissions policies, employers' liability policies, directors and officers policies, cyber insurance policies, and other commercial policies. John's experience also includes:

- Serving as counsel for corporate policyholders in significant insurance coverage cases, including cases presenting successor insurance issues arising out of mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures
- Managing the implementation of insurance settlements and claims handling agreements for pattern tort litigation nationwide, working with both the corporate policyholders
