

Christina C. Nethero

PARTNER, HEALTH CARE
INDUSTRY SECTOR CO-CHAIR

A corporate transactional attorney, Christina has extensive experience in mergers and acquisitions, banking and finance, private equity, securities, and general corporate law. She routinely represents institutional investors, private equity funds, closely-held companies, publicly-traded corporations, and entrepreneurial start-ups in a range of industries with securities offerings, equity and debt financings, mergers and acquisitions, general commercial transactions, and internal corporate governance matters.

Christina routinely advises clients on structuring, negotiating, and completing complex commercial transactions, including:

- Acquiring and selling businesses
- Private equity investments
- Drafting business and finance contracts and agreements
- Preparing legal opinions
- Conducting due diligence and preparing disclosure documents in connection with various types of business transactions

Outside of the office, Christina enjoys spending time with her family and reading, swimming, and biking. She is actively involved with her church, where she serves on the lecture and children's room committees.
