

Thomas G. Pletz OF COUNSEL

Tom has more than four decades of experience in state and federal court litigation in the areas of constitutional and statutory rights and in defamation and education law, as well as complex product liability cases, special remedies, and religious organizations. Since 1990, he has been an Acting Judge in Sylvania Municipal Court, for which he has written numerous decisions on a wide variety of civil and criminal law issues. He has been trial counsel of record in more than 40 reported state and federal court appellate decisions. Tom has been admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States and is a life member of the U. S. Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals Judicial Conference.

Tom has extensive experience in:

- Print and electronic media defamation and public records matters
- Representing numerous church denominations, schools, parishes, dioceses, religious congregations, TV and radio stations, and nonprofit organizations in litigation at the trial and appellate levels in state and federal courts
- Litigating cases for private schools, religious organizations, and educational foundations
- Defending complex product liability cases involving machinery, motor vehicles, civilian and military aviation
