

Brian W. Schaffnit

PARTNER

Brian represents businesses and individuals in litigation, arbitration, and administrative matters. An experienced litigator, Brian has obtained summary judgments and jury verdicts for plaintiffs and defendants, tried arbitration cases to award, and successfully defended clients against professional license complaints. He also counsels clients on non-litigation matters.

Brian advocates for his clients in a wide array of matters, including:

- Complex commercial litigation
- Contract disputes
- Products liability
- Professional negligence
- Negligence and wrongful death
- Construction defects
- Real estate
- Employment
- Community associations

Beyond the courtroom, Brian enjoys coaching youth baseball and flag football.
