

David Jolly

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND PRINCIPAL FEDERAL PRACTICE

Executive Vice President & Principal of Shumaker Advisors Florida, David provides communications strategy, political consulting, and business development services throughout the nation to companies, nonprofit organizations, and candidate and issue advocacy ballot initiatives. David served in the U.S. House of Representatives for Florida's 13th Congressional District from 2014-2017, representing the communities of St. Petersburg, Clearwater, and the surrounding beaches.

David's Washington, D.C. achievements include:

- Serving as a member of the House Committee on Appropriations, where he had oversight over virtually every federal program and was responsible for working with the committee in crafting the annual budgets of each federal department and agency
- Serving in a professional staff capacity in Congress over more than 20 years in various roles
- Serving as a Vice President at Van Scoyoc Associates, a government affairs firm in Washington D.C., and has owned and operated his own law, government affairs, and communications firm.

A lawyer by training, David previously practiced securities law at Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson. He is admitted to practice

SERVICE LINE

Public Policy & Government Affairs

INDUSTRY SECTOR

Public Sector

PRIMARY LOCATION

Tampa, FL

EDUCATION

J.D., George Mason University School of Law

law in Virginia and the District of Columbia.

B.A., Emory University

David is a frequent guest analyst on MSNBC, CNN, and other news stations. He has been a guest or featured on Real Time with Bill Maher, Morning Joe, CBS World News, NBC Nightly News, and Vice News, and his work can be found in The Washington Post, Time Magazine, CNN.com, the Tampa Bay Times, and other print outlets. David's time in Congress was also a feature story on CBS 60 Minutes.

David has a B.A. from Emory University in History and a J.D. cum laude from George Mason University. He currently serves on several corporate boards for both private and publicly held companies. David and his wife, Laura, reside in Belleair Bluffs, Florida.