

Terence S. Reynolds

PARTNER

With over a decade of experience, Terence's practice focuses primarily on defending medical malpractice and catastrophic personal injury litigation on behalf of medical providers and institutions. He also handled complex insurance coverage investigations and disputes involving a variety of insurance products and litigation across the country.

Terence has a diverse civil litigation defense background spanning cases involving:

- Professional liability
- Nursing home and long-term care liability
- Product liability
- Construction defect
- Insurance coverage disputes
- Premises liability
- Motor vehicle negligence

Outside of work, Terence enjoys family time and traveling with his wife and three children. He also is an avid cyclist. Through his passion for cycling, Terence gives back to the community by regularly participating in group rides and annual charity events that raise money for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, in honor of his late mother.
