

Thomas A. Cotter

PARTNER

In a career spanning more than three decades, Tom has represented diverse clientele on a broad range of tax issues, including the structuring of sophisticated sale, acquisition, and financing transactions for U.S.-based and international companies, inbound and outbound international business tax planning, and real estate investment trust (REIT) taxation.

Tom is engaged in transactional and general business tax planning and structuring, corporate and partnership taxation, international business tax planning, tax compliance, and REIT taxation.

He is an armchair physicist and avid player of computer strategy games. Tom also regularly attends concerts of his favorite aging rock bands and loves to travel and experience new ideas and cultures.
