

Amanda C. Sattler

PARALEGAL

A paralegal in the Real Estate, Construction & Development Service Line, Amanda also is a Florida Licensed Real Estate Agent, which gives her an understanding of the intricacies related to residential and commercial real estate matters.

Amanda's management experience allows her to assist in many aspects of real estate transactions, including the preparation of contracts, closing and loan documents, lease and rental agreements, and more. In addition, Amanda spent more than a decade working for a developer, where she gained a great deal of industry knowledge.

Outside the office, Amanda has a passion for giving back to the communities in which she lives and works. She is an involved member of the Rotary Club of Dade City, having served terms as secretary and president. She is actively involved in the Parent Teacher Organization at her children's school, and she enjoys going on camping adventures with her family.
