Shumaker

TECHNOLOGY

We help clients navigate the constantly evolving technological landscape, enabling them to perform essential business operations while leveraging the power of innovation.

When intellectual property hurdles, changing regulatory requirements, and further technological advancements alter your business operations, Shumaker's Technology attorneys stand ready to guide you through a shifting legal landscape.

REPRESENTATIVE CLIENTS

- Technology start-ups
- Advertising and public relations companies
- Marketing and technical consulting companies
- Software developers
- Computer systems design companies
- Informational Technology (IT) consulting companies
- Telecommunications companies
- Graphic design companies

OUR CAPABILITIES

- Website policies, including terms of use, terms of service, and privacy
- Data licensing agreements
- Guidance on organizational issues, governance, training, development, compliance, general policies, liability, management, and business concerns
- Negotiation of venture capital investment documentation
- Computer hacking, ransomware, and data breach response and mitigation services
- Employment law
- Business, tax, and estate planning
- Mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures
- Employee benefits and executive compensation
- Patent and trademark application and prosecution
- Non-disclosure agreements and trade secret policies

60+
Technology Attorneys

Helping Clients Move Forward with Confidence Since 1925

NLJ 500 FIRM
National Law Journal

2024
Best Law Firms®
Best Lawyers®

Douglas A. Cherry
Partner, Intellectual Property Regional Service Line Leader, Technology Industry Sector Co-Chair
941.364.2738 | dcherry@shumaker.com

Phillip H. Lee
Partner, Technology Industry Sector Co-Chair
419.321.1304 | plee@shumaker.com

SHUMAKER.COM →