Shumaker

ENVIRONMENTAL & ENERGY

We guide environmental and energy clients through the complex laws, regulations, and business concerns endemic to operating in this industry.

Leveraging decades of extensive industry knowledge and experience, Shumaker's Environmental & Energy lawyers develop a deep understanding of clients' business goals and legal challenges to craft strategies that protect financial interests and business reputations.

REPRESENTATIVE CLIENTS

- Electric utilities
- Petroleum refineries
- Interstate pipeline companies
- Integrated oil and gas producers
- Waste management companies
- Remediation and environmental consulting companies

OUR CAPABILITIES

- Compliance problems under the Clean Air Act; Clean Water Act; Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act (FIFRA); Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA); and related environmental laws and regulations
- Negotiation of environmental assumption and indemnity provisions
- Litigation of buyer/seller disputes involving environmental compliance issues
- Defense of federal and state enforcement actions
- Regulatory intervention
- Organization of Limited Liability Companies (LLCs) and other corporate entities
- Sophisticated environmental permitting issues
- Insurance recovery litigation
- Patent, trademark, and other intellectual property applications and defense
- Corporate governance, restructuring, and other general business law matters

25+
Environmental & Energy Industry Attorneys

Helping Clients Move Forward with Confidence Since 1925

NLJ 500 FIRM
National Law Journal

2026
Best Law Firms®
Best Lawyers®

Michael A. Snyder
Partner, Environmental & Energy Industry Sector Co-Chair
614.628.4469 | msnyder@shumaker.com

SHUMAKER.COM →